ON BOARD, EXPERIENCE THE FLAVORS OF FEATURED WINERIES

Domaine Laroche

Located in the heart of Chablis, Domaine Laroche is a former monastery where monks made wine as early as the ninth century. Four generations of the Laroche family have produced wine here since 1850, with Chablis being the biggest appellation dedicated to fine white wines.

Torello Winery

The Torrellos enjoy an impressive history, dating to the 1300s. Today, the 22nd and 23rd generations continue the work of their ancestors, producing some of the best "Spanish champagnes," known as Cava. International Wine Challenge awarded their Brut Nature Gran Reserva 2009 the best sparkling wine of the year in 2016. Torello still and sparkling wines are produced with passion, with vineyards and olive trees organically cultivated and certified.
