Ste Michelle Wine Estates | Stag's Leap Wine Cellars

Founded in 1970, Stag's Leap Wine Cellars gained prominence when a bottle of its 1973 S.L.V. Cabernet Sauvignon won the now-famous 1976 Paris tasting, outranking some of the most renowned wines of Bordeaux. Over the years the wines of Stag's Leap's cellars have become some of the most highly regarded and collected wines worldwide. In 2007, the winery became a part of the Ste. Michelle Wine Estates family, including a collaboration with Marchesi Antinori, one of the most significant Italian winemaking families. Today, the company celebrates its rich heritage by highlighting award-winning Italian vintages and iconic wines from Oregon, Washington, and California's Napa and Sonoma Valley.
